

As a Market Research Manager – Boston, you will help grow the differentiated research function, and build and maintain a competitive advantage in the marketplace through deep local market expertise, analysis, and insight.

To thrive in this role you must successfully contribute to the market research function and outputs for the local commercial real estate market. You will work closely with the local Market Research lead and internal and external research colleagues on a daily basis. In addition, this role will also work in close collaboration with our Product and Sales teams to ensure alignment on core growth strategies.

Our mission is to be Commercial Real Estate's modern operating system, the place where deals happen, customer relationships are nourished, and real-time market data comes to life. We're growing at an incredible pace and are looking for a talented Market Research Manager – Boston to join the team.
